

40-hour Mediation & Conflict Management Training
Scholarship Application
For Financial Need-Based Partial Scholarship and/or Work-Study Scholarship

The Peninsula Dispute Resolution Center (PDRC), a non-profit organization, is committed to offering mediation and conflict management training to residents of Clallam and Jefferson Counties. We offer a limited number of financial need-based partial scholarships and work-study scholarships each year.

If you live or work in Clallam or Jefferson Counties and are seeking financial assistance or work-study opportunities to enable you to attend one of our trainings, please submit your application for the current training period. Applicants must resubmit a new form for each training; space is limited.

Please note that scholarship amounts are based on an individual's need; scholarship amounts may vary depending on the current funding available for financial assistance.
