

Peninsula Dispute Resolution Center
40-hour Basic Mediation Training
Scholarship Application

The Peninsula Dispute Resolution Center (PDRC), a non-profit organization, is committed to offering mediation trainings to residents of Clallam and Jefferson Counties. We offer a limited number of financial need-based partial scholarships each year.

If you live or work in Clallam or Jefferson Counties and are seeking financial assistance to enable you to attend one of our trainings, please submit your application for the current training period. Applicants must resubmit a new form for each training; space is limited.

Please note that scholarship amounts are based on an individual's need; scholarship amounts may vary depending on the current funding available for financial assistance.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Cell: _____ Home: _____ Work: _____

Email: _____

What is your household size?

What is your annual household income? (a ballpark estimate is just fine)

Which training session(s) are you applying for?

- Spring Basic Mediation Training Clallam County
- Spring Basic Mediation Training Jefferson County

We offer full and partial scholarships based on individual needs. Please indicate which scholarship you are applying for:

- Full scholarship
- Partial scholarship

If partial scholarship, please indicate the amount that you are able to pay at this time: _____

Please complete the following questions:

1. How will this training help meet your personal/professional goals?

2. Describe the circumstances that led you to apply for a scholarship.

3. How will a scholarship assist you?

4. Are you interested in becoming a certified mediator and volunteering with Peninsula Dispute Resolution Center?

Yes

No

Unsure

5. We would appreciate your help in expressing appreciation to the donors who make the scholarships possible. If you are a scholarship recipient, would you prefer to:

- Compose a note of appreciation written directly to a scholarship donor (either anonymously or with your name attached)
- Complete a post-training statement/testimonial to be posted on our website/brochure (either anonymously or with your name attached)
- Attend and assist at a donor function or event
- Other gesture of appreciation. Please describe:

Name / Signature

Date

If you have any questions about your application, please contact our Training Coordinator at kailey@pdrc.org or at (360) 452-8024 x4.